FALL HARVEST FESTIVAL TRIVIA

What year did Harvest Festival begin in Monroe?

Bonus: if you attended any of the previous years’ celebrations, what is your most memorable event?

NEWSLETTER SUBMISSIONS

Newsletters are published monthly. Email 03771plans@gmail.com by July 22nd with submissions for the August newsletter.

IT OUT AT THE LIBRARY TUESDAY 12pm-7pm; WEDNESDAY 9am-4pm; SATURDAY 9am-12pm

Remember there are ways for adults to get in on some summer fun too: Fire Tower Quest, NH Adventure Challenge, Smokey's 80th B-Day Challenge, and Historical Marker Quest. Participants will be entered into a drawing for gas or grocery gift cards.

There are several ways to participate in the library's summer programming for children in Kindergarten through 4th grade.

- Join us at the library July 15th-18th for four days of adventuring through the wild world around us and learn about the outdoors through crafts, activities and so much s'more. Register by contacting the library by Saturday, July 6th
- Complete the State Library's NH Adventure Challenge* (must be completed by 8/31)
- Honor Smokey Bear as he turns 80 by learning about wildfires and the environment with the Smokey Bear Reading Challenge* (this one runs until November 28)

*Forms available at the library

F.A.S.T. SQUAD

The Monroe F.A.S.T. Squad welcomes three new members, bringing our active membership to six. Casey Locke and Jamie Ward recently completed an EMR class and will be taking the EMT class to be held starting in January 2025. The third is Nicole Woods who already is an EMT and recently moved to Monroe.

Congratulations to Katrina Wildenstein for recently completing the EMT class. She is now a nationally registered EMT.

F.A.S.T. Squad has medical equipment to loan out (walkers, commodes, shower chairs, wheelchair, crutches etc.) If you have a need for any of this equipment, you can call Maynard Farr at 603-638-8011 or Katrina Wildenstein at 603-238-7232.
